Best Things to do in Plant City

In addition to the benefits of living in our pleasant community, the township of Buena is nestled within the New Jersey Pinelands National Reserve! Discover an abundance of plush gardens, hiking trails and thriving agriculture. You'll also find cultural celebrities within one of the most well-known vacation spots in the world.

Directly adjacent to our property on its southern side, our residents have access to the Latona Country Club which boasts a sprawling, 9-hole public golf course. The multiple vineyards within a few miles of our grounds are popular social venues for sampling the area's premier wines with city locals and visitors alike. Delight in the experiences surrounding our prime location!
